Excerpt: .of many years experience said to me recently, We are in a new country, the change is so marked; it is like a miracle to those of us who know what the situation was ten years ago. Thus, with Christians proving faithful, with many seeking the Way of Life; with a crowded school, we find ourselves lost in praise and gratitude to the God of all nations for keeping his children from becoming discouraged in the work at a time when, of necessity, all hearts are saddened because of life given in battle, homes destitute, and loved ones overcome with sorrow. As I write, the sound of the bugle reaches my ear, and I know the soldiers are having their last training before entering the actual battlefield. This division leaves in another few days. The Reserves have been called in and all the homes...
