Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Dr. Richard Drake, Dick to his close friends, passed away, peacefully in his sleep, at 7:10 am on February 9, 2011. He had been diagnosed with an Aortic aneurysm in November 2010. Richard was the visionary and Founder of Phoenix University of Theology, a 501(c)(3) Non-profit Christian University, incorporated in the state of Arizona, June 15, 2001. Richard had a passion for learning, he spent countless hours researching the history of education and the political policies and laws that effect Christian education and the Church. Thankfully, a number of Richard s orientation presentations outlining the vision for Phoenix University of Theology had been recorded. After his death, the recordings were transcribed and used to produce this book, using Richard s own words, as much as possible. I believe that throughout the words of The Army of Compassion, you will get a sense of Richard s heart, and realization that education goes well beyond the textbook and requires drawing on a much wider range of sources in the pursuit of knowledge. History proves that teaching had forever been an edict of the church; this truth inspired Richard s vision to uniquely positioned the University to reclaiming the educational prerogatives of Ecclesiastical authority along with its biblical standards and measures. Phoenix University of Theology International, continues Richard s vision and represents a revival of the classic Ecclesiastical University System, which takes into consideration competencies, proven performance skills and proficiencies. - We recognize many environments as appropriate to learning, not just the classroom - We acknowledge the range of learning resources is limitless - We confirm credits for documented learning, regardless of how it is accomplished - We acknowledge the value...
