Y: On Sabbath Evening, June 12th, 1825, on Occasion of the Death of Mrs. Mary Laidlie The following Discourse is not published with a view of obtaining applause, which I am conscious it does not merit; but simply at the request of those relatives and friends whose wishes are imperative. It was written in the intervals of hours of sickness; which prevented much method or accuracy. A desire to express all the ideas that suggested themselves, led to prolixity and repetition. I had no time to make it shorter. I am aware of much verbiage and redundance; and digressions from the main design; in which, perhaps, the thread of the discourse is scarcely discernible. But I have printed it strictly as it was delivered, since if the task of correction had been undertaken, it would have led to the formation of an entirely new sermon. The nature of the subject precluded any thing in the shape of argument. I am sensible that it has led me into much wire-drawn sentiment; nay, into unprofitable declamation. I make these admissions in justice to myself, and in order to anticipate the criticism of those whose business it is to enlighten the public.
