That looks like a fiat contradiction to ye youngsters; but it requires age and experience to deal with these stunning paradoxes. I have no desire to pose as an enfant terrible; still I opine that grown people should not permit we kids to perish in our ignorance. It is barely possible that the philosophers of the McKinley school have discarded prosy logic for poetic license. The Republicans pose as the real bimetallists, the true friends of silver --declare that all they want is an honest dollar, one worth its face the world over. Then why wait for that international agreement which ever recedes like the pot of rupees at the rainbow s base, when, by simply opening our mints, we can make 412 1-2 grains of coin silver equal to 25.8 grains of coin gold anywhere, and add $35,000,000 per annum to the value of American products? I know that it is impertinent for thoughtless kids to harass a New Napoleon with vexatious questions when he wants to talk about the tariff; but juvenile curiosity cannot be easily overcome. We are told that this tremendous profit of the mine-owners would come out of the pockets of the working people. What profit, if the silver dollar will sink at once to its bullion value? But I forget; it will sink, and still it won t sink. It is to go up and down and stand still simultaneously. Silver is to double in selling...
