AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 127 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Ladies and Whores explores female anger in its many forms. Even in this day and age, there is a general belief that women can get angry, perform acts of passive aggressiveness that even the most brilliant of writers could never imagine, and sometimes commit acts of violence when pushed to extremes, but only to protect. To maintain the peace within their specific universe. But there is a line we would never cross simply because of our gender. Never violence just because. We are the caretakers. We are the givers of life. Meanwhile prisons arc filling up with women who have committed crimes that are equal to or surpass their male counterparts. Women are also ihc Goddesses of rationalizations for any indiscretions they might commit In A Lady Never. Ruth has her religion to justify her actions. She piously states, Violence? Disgusting. The price paid when dealing with those who have no education, no training, no moral center. Bottom Bitch enters the everyday life of prostitutes and how the anger towards their clients and themselves is hidden, Amelia muses, Fear and shame. He tried to cover it up, take it back. But it was too late. In that moment, I felt all the power leave him and enter me. Your Cotton Pickin Mind sees Rena using the oldest excuse in the book. It s everyone else s fault. She s just trying to survive. God loves me. She smiles. He s just not in love with me. A Lady Never. won Honorable Mention from the Little Theatre of Manchester at Cheney Hall 2004 Great Hartford Playwrights Competition-Manchester, Ct. Bottom Bitch was featured in the 2003 Trinity-On-Main Fall Festival-New Britain,...
