Bedford if he could, and have the captain, Lowell and Crocker arrested for conspiracy to defraud. But there might be some slip, and I wished to take no chances. Had I had the London letter that had been taken from me I should not have cared what Captain Hannock wished me to do, but watched my chances, and gone ashore at the first opportunity. Where the letter was I could not imagine, excepting that it might be in the cabin or the captain s stateroom. One thing was certain. Whatever happened I must regain the letter. Personally it was to me of greater importance than the exposure of what was going on aboard the schooner. I walked aft and discovered the lawyer in conversation with Tony Dibble. I suppose you have been to see the captain, said Mr. Ranson with a peculiar smile. Yes, sir, I have; and I related the result of the interview. I had a talk with him about your case, went on the lawyer. But I did not think he would get around it in this fashion. Well, I will see that you get through all right. I wouldn t care, excepting for that letter, I returned. We can get a search warrant, and hunt it up. But, in the mean time, Captain Hannock may destroy it. No doubt he thinks it of small account. If I were you I d hunt it up on my own account, put in Dibble. You did slick work finding out about that cargo of stones and kindlings, why can t you do as well finding out about that letter and your money? I have half...
