Without the Bands (Paperback)

By Darrell B Cobb

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Fluoride salesman John Robert "Bob" Dobbs is attending a Teflon convention in Milan, Italy when he gets word that his home back in Encino, California has been burned to the ground, killing his wife, Connie, and his daughter, Carrie Lynn. Bobs grasp on reality is already tenuous before the tragedy. He frequently time-travels, and is being held prisoner on an alien planet as a zoological specimen in a parallel dimension. In one of his previous lives, J. R. Dobbs existed as a fictional narrative spun by one Kilgore Trout. Now set adrift without a family, Dobbs returns to his former home and pitches a tent on the property. His neighbors believe that grief has driven Bob to insanity. But Bob doesnt feel insane, grief or much of anything for that matter. Hes just putting one foot in front of the other and taking it one day at a time. While sleeping under the stars. A local human interest reporter, Cybil Watson, is ordered by her station manager to get the real story behind Bob Dobbss...
