Mary Steinnerd, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a true story of a part of my own spiritual journey. I am a channel. I didn t know it until I was in my thirties. As a child I often wondered how I could carry on conversations as I did in my head and suddenly feel comforted by these thoughts, suddenly have answers to my questions or to know things I had never been taught. Yet I thought it must be the same for everyone. I remember when I was eight or nine asking my Mother if she saw pictures of people in her mind even with her eyes open? She told me no and asked me if I knew the people? I said no, but I tried to memorize the pictures and watched for them. I never saw them. It wasn t until I consciously began walking upon my spiritual path that I learned the photographs I would see are of people who have died. The conversations were with my Guide. For the most part this communication disappeared when I went to college. In my twenties, I partied, played sports, studied, worked and socialized, but rarely spent time alone or looking within. In my early thirties, my life seemed to have turned upside down. I was unhappy and miserable with everything in my life. My life changed dramatically as a long term relationship ended. I felt completely lost and alone. I was Vice President of a manufacturing company and nearly lost my job as I became depressed and disinterested in life. I couldn t sleep and one morning before dawn I found myself at the beach. I was crying and praying for help....
