Approaches to English Language Teaching

By Joseph C. Mukalel

Discovery Publishing House Pvt. Ltd., 2011. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. ELT is a field of theory and practices that are built on several foundations. Of these the most proximate foundations of ELT have come to be called `Approaches to Teaching English`. This body of information is the theory structure that essentially guides the Teacher of English in his Classroom practices. Teaching English in India has become a complex and multidimensional phenomenon. This calls for a multidimensional rather than a unidimensional approach to ELT. Everything calls for a much deepen comprehension of under currents of ELT by the teacher of English. The present work aims at preparing the teacher for this task. Introduction I. THE Nature OF Language : 1. Language as a Structured System 2. Language is for Communication 3. Language is Symbolic 4. The Vocal Characteristic of Language 5. Arbitrariness of Language 6. Language is Changing 7. Language is Culture-based 8. The Creative Nature of Language 9. Uniqueness of Language 10. A Few other Characteristics II. ACQUISITION OF THE FIRST LANGUAGE : 1. Learning Conditions of L1 and L2 2. Factors Affecting the Learning of L1 3. Stages of L1 Acquisition Process 4. Internalisation of Linguistic Systems 5. Acquiring...
