Twentythird street and Sixth avenue, loss 79,700 00 Dec. 14. Standard Theatre, Nos. 1283 and 1285 Broadway, loss 50,800 OO Inman Steamship Pier, February 1 At 2.18 A. M. an alarm sent from the box located at Charlton and West streets was received by the Department, calling the 7floating engine to the scene of the fire in addition to the usual complement of three engine and two hook and ladder companies. A third alarm at 2.28 A. M. brought eight engine and two hook and ladder companies more, but one of the engine companies, not being required, was at once returned to quarters. The structure occupied the whole of Pier 36, 75x600 feet, was two stories high for about one hundred feet from the bulkhead and built of wood with iron roof trusses, the whole covered with corrugated iron. The building was without sub-dividing partitions from front to rear, and was used for the handling and temporary storage of incoming and outgoing freight, of which a large quantity was on hand at the time of the fire. The fire.originated near the outer end of the pier, and though inquiry showed that the sending of the alarm was not delayed by the employees of the Inman Steamship Company after its discovery, the fire was found upon the arrival of the first company to have made such rapid progress towards the shore end of the pier as to prevent the firemen from penetrating...
