Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Judith Cullen (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Continuing the popular A TRIO OF IRISH TALES, this collection presents two continued adventures of characters from the first volume in Patrick s Path and The Fairy Tree, plus an entirely new cast in Two Houses. Patrick s Path features Pat Flynn from In the Mists. Pat is 24 now and he s tired of always walking in everyone s wake - following along behind. He wants to find something that he is passionate about; something that he can claim as his very own. He also wouldn t mind catching the eye of Daimhin Finnegan. The Fairy Tree reunites us with young Liam Killough of The Shadow by the Gate. He and his family have settled into life in rural County Wicklow, but Liam is at continual odds with farm manager Rose McLane. The tension has been mounting and explodes with unexpected results, leaving young Liam desperate to set things to rights again. In Two Houses a young American couple on their honeymoon find their ties to Irish heritage are far more insistent than just a simple perusal of genealogies. As the past disturbs their future, Mark and Cate must unravel the mystery of two houses that suffered very different fates, but that are somehow connected. Three modern tales steeped in the lore of an ancient land that will call to your Celtic soul, even if you never thought you had one.
