In every case, too, in which nurses and other attendants were employed, they were engaged upon the cheapest terms upon which their services could be obtained, it having been a ruling principle with me to render the expenditure as little onerous as possible, consistently with the effectual attainment of the great object of the charity. The whole number of individuals, to whom relief was administered in this way, was seventeen, and the whole amount expended, one hundred and ninety-seven dollars, twenty-five cents. But whilst relief was extended in this manner to afflicted individuals or families, in different...
